Heritage on Sunday – February – Alive in '25

We welcomed 89 visitors to the new year with a rejuvenated Museum. Over the Christmas break the main building upstairs was professionally repainted. Perhaps more accurately ... cracks were filled and walls prepared, as the actual painting took only 30% of the time! At over $13,000, you can appreciate why we need a flow of visitors paying the entrance fee.

After the painting, volunteers did a thorough clean and polish and also took the time to mount some new displays and retire some back to storage.

Nature Play Area launched

Our new children's Nature Play Area at the rear of the site was officially launched at the February Heritage on Sunday event.

It includes a model kitchen, sand pit, bridge, teepee and games ... ready to add children's imagination.

Janet Ashton has championed this project for several years, with Graham Bull and Graeme Holmes leading the construction work. After an introduction from Janet, Graeme cut the ribbon and the children were off ...

Heritage on Sunday – March – Carrot Caper

"All things carrot" ... starting with free entry for carrot tops (red heads)! The event attracted 130 participants who found how to grow carrots, played carrot games, heard carrot stories, and printed with carrots. A roving carrot told jokes!

Why did the carrot blush? ... because it saw the salad dressing!

Visitors sampled a wide range of carrot food and drinks.

Thanks to Mary Jo Zwar for her planning, Nicol Carrots for donating carrots, and Ann Davenport for displaying her art works.

NTSA Service Awards

As a Branch of the National Trust of South Australia (NTSA) we can nominate volunteers for the annual NTSA awards.

In 2024 we nominated five volunteers who had completed over 10 years of service and one over 25 years.

Congratulations, and thank you, to the following whose Service Awards were presented by our Chair, Gill Starks, at the Museum during Feb/Mar.
